Iceland · 5 days · September 2026

- Solo traveler
- nature, driving, photography

DAY ONE

1

Arrival and Steam

● Morning Reykjavik

Start at Hallgrímskirkja on Skólavörðuholt hill; the tower opens 09:00 and offers the clearest view over the colored rooftops before midday crowds arrive.

● Afternoon Blue Lagoon

Blue Lagoon sits 20 minutes from Keflavík airport on Route 43; pre-booked entry is required, and late afternoon slots after 17:00 tend to be quietest.

DAY TWO

2

Golden Circle

● Morning Thingvellir

Park at P1 for the Almannagjá rift walk and Oxarfoss; the visitor center on Route 36 has restrooms and pay-and-display parking valid across all lots.

● Afternoon Gullfoss

Use the upper car park for the panoramic platform, then descend the staircase to the lower viewpoint; spray is heaviest on the right-hand path.

South Coast Falls

● Morning

Skogafoss

Skogafoss is reached directly from the Ring Road exit; the staircase on the east side climbs 527 steps to a clifftop view over the Skoga river.

● Afternoon

Reynisfjara

Park at the main Reynisfjara lot and check the safe.is wave warning before walking onto the sand; sneaker waves are strongest at high tide.

Glacier Lagoon

● Morning

Jokulsarlon

Jokulsarlon has two pull-offs along Route 1; cross the bridge and park on the east side for closer iceberg views, then walk south to Diamond Beach.

Peninsula Drive

● Morning

Snaefellsnes

Loop the peninsula clockwise on Route 54; fuel up in Borgarnes before departure, as the next reliable station is at Olafsvik on the north shore.
