

YOUR ITINERARY

Bangkok

Thailand · 6 days · January 2026

• Friends

• culture, beaches, nightlife

DAY ONE

1

Royal Old Town

• Morning

Grand Palace

Open daily 08:30 to 15:30. Enter via the Viseshchaisri Gate on Na Phra Lan Road; shoulders and knees must be covered, sarongs lent at the gate.

• Afternoon

Wat Pho

Five minutes south of the Palace, open 08:00 to 18:30. Use the Chetuphon Road entrance for the Reclining Buddha hall and the traditional massage school.

DAY TWO

2

Markets and Nights

• Morning

Chatuchak Market

Weekends only, busiest 10:00 to 14:00. Take the MRT to Kamphaeng Phet, exit 2, which puts you inside the market between sections 16 and 17.

• Evening

Khao San Road

Bars and street stalls run from dusk to about 02:00. Quieter end is near Soi Rambuttri; taxis are easier from Chakrabongse Road than Khao San itself.

DAY THREE

3

South to Phuket

• Morning

Phuket

Domestic flights from Don Mueang and Suvarnabhumi reach Phuket in about 90 minutes. Airport bus to Patong runs hourly; taxis use a fixed-fare counter in arrivals.

4

Phi Phi by Boat

● Morning

Phi Phi Islands

Speedboats leave Rassada Pier in Phuket Town from 08:00; the calmer Ao Maya entrance is via Loh Samah Bay on the south side of Phi Phi Leh.

5

DAY FIVE

Karst Bay Cruise

● Morning

Phang Nga Bay

Join tours from Ao Por Pier on Phuket's northeast coast for shorter crossings to James Bond Island and the Koh Panyee stilt village.

6

DAY SIX

Andaman Sands

● Morning

Patong Beach

Calmer water is early morning before the jet skis start around 10:00. Sunset is best from the rocks at the north end near Kalim.

odysee.me