DAY ONE

1

Coastline Arrival

• Afternoon

Amalfi town

The Duomo di Sant'Andrea sits at the top of sixty-two steps in Piazza Duomo, open most afternoons until around 19:00 in September.

DAY TWO

2

Cliffs and Trails

• Morning

Positano

SITA buses from Amalfi reach Positano in about 50 minutes; arriving before 10:00 means thinner crowds on the Via Pasitea stairs down to Spiaggia Grande.

• Afternoon

Path of the Gods

The classic route runs from Bomerano to Nocelle, roughly 7 km and 3 hours, mostly downhill. Wear grip soles and carry water — there are no fountains midway.

DAY THREE

3

Gardens Above the Sea

• Morning

Ravello

Ravello sits 365 metres above the coast, reached by SITA bus from Amalfi in about 25 minutes. The historic centre is car-free around Piazza Duomo.

• Afternoon

Villa Cimbrone

Villa Cimbrone opens daily from 09:00, with the Terrace of Infinity at the far end of the garden path. Tickets are sold at the gatehouse near Piazza Fontana.

4

DAY FOUR

Island Day

● Morning

Capri

Fast ferries from Amalfi to Capri run in about 50 minutes in September, docking at Marina Grande. The funicular up to Capri town leaves from the pier every 15 minutes.

● Afternoon

Blue Grotto

Access is by rowboat from Marina Grande, weather permitting; swells often close it after midday. Check the morning conditions board at the ticket kiosk before booking.

5

DAY FIVE

Ancient Ground

● Morning

Pompeii

From Sorrento, the Circumvesuviana train reaches Pompeii Scavi in 30 minutes. Enter at Porta Marina; the site opens at 09:00, last entry 17:30.
