DAY ONE

1

Bridges and Bay

• Morning

Golden Gate Bridge

Morning fog usually lifts by 10am at the Golden Gate. Park at the Welcome Center on the south side and walk the east sidewalk for the cleanest skyline view.

• Afternoon

Fisherman's Wharf

Fisherman's Wharf is busiest after 1pm. Head to Pier 39 for the sea lions, then walk west to Pier 45 for Boudin Bakery and the historic ships.

DAY TWO

2

Island and Murals

• Morning

Alcatraz

Ferries leave from Pier 33 and must be booked weeks ahead. Take an early sailing, around 8:45am, to walk the cellhouse before the midday crowds arrive.

• Afternoon

Mission District

Start on 24th Street between Mission and Bryant for the Balmy Alley murals, then walk north on Valencia for taquerias, bookshops, and Dolores Park by late afternoon.

3

DAY THREE

Wine Country Roads

● Morning

Napa Valley

Drive north on Highway 29 through Yountville and St Helena. Most wineries require tasting reservations, and many small ones close by 5pm in October.

● Afternoon

Sonoma

Sonoma Plaza sits at the end of Highway 12, about 45 minutes from Napa. Tastings cluster around the square, and several rooms stay open until 6pm on weekends.

4

DAY FOUR

Redwood Morning

● Morning

Muir Woods

Muir Woods requires a parking or shuttle reservation booked in advance. Arrive before 9am for quiet on the main loop, and bring a warm layer for the canyon floor.
