1

DAY ONE

Sevillian Landmarks

• Morning

Seville Cathedral

Enter via Puerta del Principe on Avenida de la Constitucion. Open Monday to Saturday from 11:00, and book the Giralda tower slot online to skip the queue.

• Afternoon

Plaza de Espana

A 10-minute walk south through Maria Luisa Park. Late afternoon light suits the tiled alcoves, and rowboats on the canal rent until about 20:00.

2

DAY TWO

Moorish Palaces

• Morning

Royal Alcazar

Reserve the first 9:30 slot online; same-day tickets sell out by mid-morning. Enter at Puerta del Leon on Plaza del Triunfo, beside the Cathedral.

3

DAY THREE

Cordoba Day Trip

• Morning

Cordoba Mezquita

Take the early AVE from Santa Justa, around 80 minutes to Cordoba. The Mezquita opens 10:00 on weekdays, with free entry between 8:30 and 9:30 Monday to Saturday.

DAY FOUR

4

Granada's Heights

● Morning

Granada Alhambra

Book Nasrid Palaces tickets months ahead with a fixed entry time. Take the C3 minibus from Plaza Isabel la Catolica, or walk up Cuesta de Gomez through the woods.

● Afternoon

Albaicin

Cross the Darro by Paseo de los Tristes and climb to Mirador de San Nicolas for the Alhambra view. Sunset is the busiest hour, so arrive 45 minutes early.

DAY FIVE

5

Cliffs of Ronda

● Morning

Ronda

Drive or take the bus from Seville, about two hours. Cross Puente Nuevo for the gorge view, and the bullring museum on Calle Virgen de la Paz opens 10:00.

DAY SIX

6

Coastal Malaga

● Morning

Malaga

One hour by AVE from Granada or two from Seville. The Picasso Museum on Calle San Agustin opens 10:00, and Alcazaba is a short walk uphill from the Roman theatre.
