

YOUR ITINERARY

Reykjavik

Iceland · 5 days · September 2026

• Solo traveler

• nature, driving, photography

DAY ONE

1

Arrival and Steam

• Morning

Reykjavik

Start at Hallgrímskirkja on Skólavörðuholt hill; the tower opens at 09:00 and gives the clearest overview of the coloured rooftops before tour buses arrive.

• Afternoon

Blue Lagoon

Blue Lagoon sits 50 minutes south of Reykjavik off Route 43; pre-book a slot, as walk-ins are rarely accepted and the last entry is two hours before closing.

DAY TWO

2

Golden Circle

• Morning

Thingvellir

Park at P1 for the Almannagja rift walk between the tectonic plates; the visitor centre opens at 09:00 and has the only restrooms on this side.

• Afternoon

Gullfoss

Use the upper car park for the wide canyon view, then descend the stairs to the lower platform; spray is heavy, so keep lenses covered until the last moment.

DAY THREE

3

South Coast Falls

● Morning

Skogafoss

Skogafoss is just off Route 1 with free parking at the base; climb the 527 steps on the east side for a top-down view along the Skoga river.

● Afternoon

Reynisfjara

Park at Reynisfjara and check the safe.is wave forecast before walking out; sneaker waves reach far up the black sand, so stay well back from the waterline.

DAY FOUR

4

Glacier Lagoon

● Morning

Jokulsarlon

Jokulsarlon is a four-hour drive east on Route 1; cross the bridge to Diamond Beach for stranded ice, and watch for seals near the lagoon mouth.

DAY FIVE

5

Peninsula Drive

● Morning

Snaefellsnes

Loop Snaefellsnes clockwise from Borgarnes on Route 54; Kirkjufell near Grundarfjordur photographs best from the small waterfall pull-off across the road.
